

Staff Training on E-Learning and HE topics for Jordanian Universities and invitation to the training ICT in Higher Education (HE), 25.2. (PSUT) and 27.2. (TTU)

Trainings prepared by ISSBS consist of 4 training programs and are part of the JOVITAL project
<https://jovital.eu/>.

The structure of all 4 training programs of 3 days:

- 2 days of training/seminar on the same topic, seminar will be delivered twice - on two different days in the same week, at two different locations:
 - Amman, Princess Sumaya Univ. for Technology Amman (PSUT)
 - Tafila, Tafila Technical University (TTU).
- one day is planned for consultations and working in small group with the management or key persons of the partners universities

Each seminar/training day will start with introduction by local Jordanian partner, presenting the project JOVITAL and its achievements.

The main targets groups are staff members at Jordanian HEIs (not only from project partners)

- Academic Staff
- Management
- Administrative
- Some of the topics could be relevant also for PhD and master students, and for general public.

Four topics of trainings/seminars are:

	Title of the seminar	Planned period	Loc.	Contact person
1	ICT in Higher Education (HE)	23. 2. – 1.3. 2020	PSUT TTU	Dr. Dušan Lesjak , dusan.lesjak@guest.arnes.si
2	The Bologna process: its impact in Europe (EHEA) and beyond	summer sem. (7.6. –20.8.), date TBC	PSUT TTU	Dr. Nada Trunk Širca, trunk.nada@gmail.com
3	Workplace challenges in digital era - implications for HE	summer sem. (7.6. –20.8.) date TBC	PSUT TTU	Dr. Valerij Dermol, valerij.dermol@gmail.com
4	Internationalisation of HE, ICT enable social inclusion (students) and academic research	summer sem. (7.6. –20.8.), date TBC	PSUT TTU	Dr. Aleš Trunk, ales.trunk@yahoo.com

- The contact for training activities in Jordan is dr. Edward Jaser, e.jaser@gmail.com, 00962797134068
- Project contact: TUD, dr. Wissam Tawileh, wissam.tawileh@tu-dresden.de
- ISSBS contact dr. Nada Trunk, trunk.nada@gmail.com

The main purpose of the trainings is to give the participants a general overview on the topics related to HE and important in the Bologna process and to discuss with participants the subtopics that are the most relevant in their environment. The participant will gain the knowledge that will also reinforce the cooperation within their own university and among Jordanian universities, and also with the international network of the teacher.

International School for Social and Business Studies (ISSBS) is a dynamic private higher education institution, located in Celje, Slovenia, and founded in 2006, with approximately 500 students, delivering curricula in the fields of economics, business and administrative sciences at all three levels of study (bachelor, masters and doctoral), all programmes are offered as blended learning training. ISSBS participate in many projects, organise annual conference MakeLearn & TIIM with participants from around 30 countries, established the international academic publishing house ToKnowPress and has international scientific journal IJMKL.

This is the invitation to the training program titled:

ICT in Higher Education (HE)

Please apply for the seminars via <http://mfdps.1ka.si/a/732>.

Tuesday 25.02.2020, Amman, Princess Sumaya Univ. for Technology (PSUT)

08:30 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:30	Welcome Address, JOVITAL project and its achievements	Host university
09:30 – 11:00	Digital divide and digital literacy	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:30	Impact of ICT on HE Impacts and implications of eLearning on HE, MOOCs	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 15:30	ICT and enrolment in HE – A case of Slovenia	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
15:30 – 16:30	Practical examples, Discussion	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
Late afternoon and/or evening program - consultations and working in small group with the management or key persons of the partners universities - will be coordinated by Dr Edward Jaser and EU expert(s)

The detailed program of the seminars will be prepared one week before the seminar start.

Wednesday 26.02.2020

Morning program - consultations and working in small group with the management or key persons of the partners universities - will be coordinated by Dr Edward Jaser and EU expert(s)
Travel from Amman to Tafila
Late afternoon and/or evening program - consultations and working in small group with the management or key persons of the partners universities - will be coordinated by Dr Edward Jaser and EU expert(s)

Thursday 27.02.2020, Tafila, Tafila Technical University (TTU)

08:30 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:30	Welcome Address, JOVITAL project and its achievements	Host university
09:30 – 11:00	Digital divide and digital literacy	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:30	Impact of ICT on HE Impacts and implications of eLearning on HE, MOOCs	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 15:30	ICT and enrolment in HE – A case of Slovenia	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
15:30 – 16:30	Practical examples, Discussion	Dr. Dušan Lesjak
Late afternoon and/or evening program - consultations and working in small group with the management or key persons of the partners universities - will be coordinated by Dr Edward Jaser and EU expert(s)

The detailed program of the seminars will be prepared one week before the seminar start.

Dr. Dušan Lesjak has been active as researcher, teacher and manager for more than 30 years. He is a professor of Management Information Systems (2000) and Management of Education (2010). His areas of expertise are e-business, e-learning and management and financing of higher education. He was a president of the Program Council for the Computerization of Schools, and a member of the Council for Higher Education. He was a State Secretary in the Ministry of Higher Education, Science and Technology of Slovenia (2006-2008) and from 2012 till 2013 he was a special advisor to the Minister of High Education, Science, Culture and Sport, covering science and higher education. He was an acting president of EuroMediterranean University – EMUNI from 2013 till 2014.